Subject No. 271.
Road from Alahalli to Basavanakadavu.

Summary of discussion.—It is prayed that a road may be constructed from Alahalli to Kaveri (Basavanakadavu).

Reply of Government.—The proposal will be referred to the Local Fund Board.

Subject No. 272.
Claim of Bangalore Municipality to Local Cess on Abkari.

Summary of discussion.—The Government may be pleased to reconsider the order declining to recognise the claim of the Bangalore City Municipality to the Local Cess levied on Abkari revenue.

Reply of Government.—The subject has already been decided in the negative after the fullest consideration possible.

Subject No. 273.
Modification of the Bangalore Municipal Election Rules.

Summary of discussion.—It is prayed that the election rules may be so modified as to make officials ineligible for election as Municipal Commissioners.

Reply of Government.—A general rule of this kind is undesirable at present.

Subject No. 274.
Marriage registers among Muhammadans.

Summary of discussion.—Marriage registers among Muhammadans are not properly maintained now. A Regulation is necessary to provide for the appointment of persons who may be authorized to keep such registers.

Reply of Government.—Such a Regulation would be very unpopular and is really not required.

Subject No. 275.
Modification of patta rules.

Summary of discussion.—The rules authorizing the transfer of pattas in favor of persons in possession should be so modified as to restrict their operation to applications based on Civil Court decrees or certificates.

Reply of Government.—The existing rules protect all interests and no change is necessary.

Subject No. 276.
(a) Revenue sales.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The present practice under which Amildars confirm sales below Rs. 50 should be discontinued, the Deputy Commissioners alone being authorized to confirm sales of all kinds irrespective of amount or value.

(b) Appeals from and complaints against Amildars.

(b) Appeals from, and complaints against, Amildars should lie direct to the Deputy Commissioner instead of to the Sub-Division Officer as at present.

Reply of Government.—These changes are undesirable and no reasonable ground for them is believed to exist.

Subject No. 277.
Collection of Condayam when it is less than a rupee.

Summary of discussion.—If Government demand is less than a rupee, the whole of it is now levied in the first khist. This being very hard on poor people, it is prayed that the existing rule be cancelled and that Patels and Shanbhogs be empowered to levy the demand in any one of the four khists.

Reply of Government.—Enquiry will be made as to the practice elsewhere.

Subject No. 278.
Notice fees to Shanbhogs.

Summary of discussion.—As Shanbhogs serve demand notices they may be paid the notice fee also.
